Hear from God in 8 different ways! Then TEACH it to others. Great for small groups and home church!

By the time you are finished with this course, you will discover that God does not have favorites, but that every believer can hear from Him clearly.

You just needed somebody to show you the ropes so that you may hear from Him too. Apostle Colette Toach is that somebody who will equip you with the tools and "know how" in hearing His voice.

You will page through the textbook and plough through this course and by the time you realize it, you will find yourself in the secret place, falling head over heels in love with Jesus... again! If you are ready to experience the reality of the Lord in your life, then dive in!

This course is for you if you can identify with any of the following:

- You want to hear from God for yourself and increase revelation
- You are a pastor and desire to mature your flock in their relationship with Jesus
- You are a small group leader looking for something fun and exciting for your group
- You are looking for a fun family activity that will help each one grow in their faith

Once you are finished reading this book, you will beat yourself silly for ever doubting your ability to hear from Him. Get ready to know Him, as He knows you. You will discover the thoughts He has towards you and begin a journey that will change your life forever.
