In the United States, there are over 25 million single adults over the age of 25 in search of their ideal partner. Additionally, a recent Newsweek story estimates that 15 to 20 percent of the 113 million married Americans have sex no more than 10 times a year, which is how experts define a sexless marriage. For men, solving the mystery of what women really desire in their partner has been a complex challenge yielding little success. How To Be A Good Bad Boy will transform you into the man that women really want by revealing when it is time to be a gentleman and when it is time to be anything but. For the first time the necessary steps - in clear terms - are communicated to show you what it will take to become a woman's fantasy man – also known as The Good Bad Boy. You will be guided from being a clueless dolt about women's desires to a James Bond type full of savior faire - all the while providing an emotionally safe environment for the woman, and a fantastic time for the both of you!
