Unfinished Business (An Angela Panther Novel Book 1) Carolyn Ridder Aspenson

Readers who like Janet Evanovich will love Aspenson's snarky characters and their laugh out loud antics.

In UNFINISHED BUSINESS AN ANGELA PANTHER NOVEL, #1 AMAZON bestselling author Carolyn Ridder Aspenson introduces her now trademark blend of witty dialog and hilarious banter in the first book of her paranormal, chick lit Angela Panther series. Filled with romance, Aspenson brings the series into the cozy mystery genre, tying the genres together with humor and heartwarming fun.

When Angela Panther's mother Fran Richter wakes her up in the middle of the night ranting about stolen Hershey Bars, Angela thinks her mother's got a screw loose. And then it hits her. Her mother is dead. Just a few hours before, Angela watched as the funeral home staff nearly dropped her mother's body off the gurney while sliding her into the hearse. So maybe she's the one that's nuttier than a fruitcake?

But Fran keeps popping in and with a volcano full of drama already brewing at home--crazy or not--Angela's grateful for her mother's presence.

It's the other ghosts Angela can do without.

Seems Fran's return opened a portal between Angela and the other side and ghosts are hitting up the reluctant psychic medium for help. From the naked British guy juggling balls in the coffee shop parking lot to the woman desperately trying to save her sick child, Angela must find a way to balance her own life with the unfinished business of the dead.

This book was a finalist in the 2014 RONE Awards from InD'Tale Magazine.

This is a new release of an edition originally published by Booktrope.
