There for You (Romance on the Go) Morgan King

Ever had a really tough time of things and just wish you had someone special in your life you could rely on?

Ben's father has just passed away and his entire family needs him to be strong for them. If only Ben had someone who could be strong for him.

Kurt is determined to be that someone. He's never met Ben, but he knows from chatting with him online that he likes him enough to turn up on his doorstep offering moral support.

Kurt's presence is a blessing. He's kind, helpful, and devilishly attractive. Just what Ben needs to take his mind off things—especially when it comes to the hot sex. But can an attraction that springs to life when one partner is emotionally vulnerable be about something more?
