Black President 3: The World Will Never Be The Same

Novel writing, MADE FOR TELEVISION. In Episode 3, things are on fire at the White House, and Stephen C. Jefferson is determined to deal with the man who attempted to assassinate him. The president's schemes and plots are thickening, and the only thing he can hope is that they do not backfire. The First Lady, Raynetta, and her mother-in-law, Teresa, are under tight security. They refuse to get along, and as things get overly heated, the two women come to a conclusion that Mr. President will have to choose. With terrorists organizations on the rise, racism on the forefront, and a mistress who is falling in love, will the president be able to reign it all in and get something major accomplished within his first term? With the American people on his side, three simple words will answer that question: YES HE CAN!
