Gabe Nicholetti, reclusive PSI agent, would rather stay on his sailboat, surrounded by water - moored off a remote island in the British Virgin Islands - than deal with the ramifications of the dead woman in his visions.

That woman, Rily Carrigan - a very much alive, for the moment, police detective in Eagle Crest, Oregon - makes it clear she has less than the time of day for the likes of him. Not that it matters.

He only has one purpose.

Bring her murderer to justice.

Rily has neither time nor patience for what she calls the woo-woo. But she's about to tumble neck deep into that waiting chasm as a murky past she thought long buried rises up to invade her present life.

Will Gabe, PSI agent with a dark secret of his own, be able to keep her alive? Or does his own past condemn Rily to a death she can't avoid?
