Suzanna believes that her life is over whereas Richard believes that hers has just begun. It must be kept a secret as they now have so much to lose should anyone discover the illicit affair. She knows that she is risking everything to be with him, but in her eyes, he was worth losing everything.

As treatment progresses, she uncovers his dark side which he had tried to repress for many years. The need to always be in control and be in power is slowly fading and he continues to fall prey to a craving that she has become more than willing to satiate. Although, she keeps trying to refuse him, there is something about him that she finds quite....satisfying and continues to give into her impulses until she is faced with numerous challenges that threatened to change the very life that she had built for herself. Now only one question remains: would he keep his promise to her?
