Queen of the South 3 (Volume 3) Tanika Honey Ward

Zedekiah Strickland has been sentenced to 15 years in prison for pandering. Meanwhile, the archenemy, Janine Blakely is still at large, pimping out young girls all over the world. Will Janine Blakely ever be brought to justice or will she continue to elude authorities? There is a new and more ruthless Queen of the South and her name is Rianne Carter. Rianne was the protégé of both Zedekiah and Monique. Rianne is out to seek vengeance against the person that killed her cousin Candace in the hotel a few years ago. Go back in time and see what led Candace and Rianne down the road of becoming high-class prostitutes. Hence, the reason that Rianne is adamant in finding Candace's murderer. Dakila returns back to the United States to finally get her degree in education. However, Dakila finds herself broken and plagued from the pain of being pimped out years back. Dakila's anger leads her on a road of revenge with her new ally Rianne. In the pursuit of revenge, Dakila pretends to be in love with an international pimp, in hopes of bringing him down for killing Candace and to aid in exposing Janine Blakely's whereabouts. Franco Dante has never gotten over the suicide of his son Jessur. Franco blames Zedekiah Strickland for his son's suicide. Franco links up with his old ally to seek reprisal against the Strickland family. However, Franco Dante's plans are interrupted by a power struggle that happens in Mexico. Will this power struggle prevent Franco Dante from avenging his son's death? Find out more as the saga continues.
