Annie Calder just wants out. Convinced by her mother to do one last job, she's not happy when she ends up stranded in the middle of nowhere. Cursing her luck, she isn't prepared for the sexy tattooed biker who rescues her. Will her secrets cost her everything, or will she escape with the life she's always wanted?

Jake "Tank" Hadley was looking for a little information. Instead, he finds a smart mouthed woman who doesn't know how to say thank you. Only he's still dying to hold her, but will her secrets tear them apart. Or is he just the man to handle them and her?

This is a stand alone title, but the most enjoyment will be had from reading first three novels in series to help with character introduction.
