The Lion of Judah Alma Boykin

Two tales of Fantasy:

"The Lion of Judah" In the urban jungle, this lion does not sleep.

His parishioners call him 'Reverend Leo' because of his unruly hair. The nick-name comes a little too close to home, especially when willful evil threatens the innocent and the good. For Rev. James Mutai has a secret, a secret that drove him out of his village in Kenya to the cold shore of Lake Michigan.

Beware the Lion of Judah!

"Feeling Needled" Restoring an antique quilt? No problem. Until the quilt fights back.

Two short stories, 13,000 words.
