What do we do when we feel unloved by the world around us? We search out our mother's love. What do we do when our mother or father isn't around? We search for someone or something to love us. We all need love all the time. How wonderful to learn and remember that the search for love is short.

How infinite is a mother's love for her child? How even more grand and infinitely are we loved by our God?

"Love More Than Mine" is a book for any person who is or was a child and blessed by a mother's love.

"Love More Than Mine" is a book for any person lucky enough to be loved as much as everyone else in the world.
