If You Want to Be Rich, Don't Buy This Book takes a no-nonsense approach to achieving financial independence by working hard, setting goals and taking carefully calculated risks to maximize your potential. Author Rich E. Obscure reveals the secret to getting rich, and it isn't such a secret after all. He offers such practical advice as "Live every day as if it's your last, but just don't spend money that way" and "The greatest lesson anyone can learn is that in order to get what you want, you have to work at it." He provides not only answers but also useful solutions to the following questions: Why is it so hard to manage money? How will keeping accurate records help me reduce debt? How do I distinguish between need and want when I'm shopping? How can I effectively communicate with my spouse about financial issues? What simple choice will improve my financial situation? If You Want to Be Rich, Don't Buy This Book cuts through the hype and shows you how to control your spending and set clear goals, so you too can achieve a secure financial future.
