Raising the Roses

Mrs. Ernestine Rose

Raising the Roses Mrs. Ernestine Rose

Raising a family is often challenging and exasperating, especially if you're raising four boys. The ups and downs of marriage and family life are explored on the crazy roller coaster of parenthood, riding on a constant balance between getting everybody where they need to be and managing a budget and career. From "Superwoman Is a Myth" to "The Shelf Life of Girlfriends," you will laugh out loud at the Rose family's challenges of raising kids in a modern world as you empathize with your own family relationships and the sound parenting advice the book offers. It's a "must-read" for mothers who are overwhelmed with micro-managing children, households, money, and too little time. Raising the Roses is a delightful memoir of the trials and tribulations of raising four boys with sanity and a sense of humor.
