Sunday Night Dinner Club, Book 2

James Elliot never meant to barge into his friend's bedroom, but now that he's caught an eyeful of Olivia Taylor, butt-naked, he can't seem to imagine her any other way.

Liv's world is falling apart. The goals she's worked so hard to achieve are crumbling. The only thing she can rely on now is the constant stability her friends provide.

But one of those friends is changing the dynamics of their relationship. James is whipping away everything that's familiar between them and replacing it with a sensuality and a passion Liv can't ignore.

With so much at stake, Liv has no time to fall in love—even if it's with her best friend. It's up to James to guide her through the toughest challenge of her life and show her that the light on the other side of the tunnel just might burn between them forever.

Warning: Contains all the red-hot loving you'd expect from a Jess Dee romance, and a sexy, sports-mad, muscle-bound alpha hero with a penchant for tossing his heroine over his shoulder.

(This book is the second in the Sunday Night Dinner Club series. Although each book stands alone, they can be better enjoyed read in order. )
