As a medical resident, Arden Simms has always been known to be a self-reliant, determined woman, but when she falls for Hollywood's hottest actor, Slayde Price, her carefully prescribed life takes an unexpected turn. When their two worlds collide, Arden and Slayde's relationship is put to the test as they try to live as newlyweds, but the flashing lights of the paparazzi expose more than Arden's dilemma with Slayde's career.

In challenging businesses where success is never a sure thing, each of their careers put pressures on their relationship and cause a rift that may be difficult to fix. Slayde must accept that Arden's residency program deals with real life and death scenarios, while she has to live along with the scripted drama shrouded by the limelight of his Hollywood life. They must do the impossible to make it work, even when they both have to overcome startling obstacles.

Relationships are never easy, but throw in the glitz and glamour, and it can be disastrous. Can they survive the Price of Fame or will their relationship's failure be front page news for the tabloids?
