Silence.

Broken by the gurgling sound of the agonizing.

A lonely soldier awakes on the battlefield. Only death surrounds him and his fog-laden mind.

Is he the only survivor of a past carnage? Or are there other unfortunate souls?

He wants to move, yet he can't. He wants to scream, but he cannot.

But he must. And soon. Because a predatory figure moves among the rests of what were once living men.

Jeffrey Kosh invites you to witness the struggle of a desperate soldier, forced to fight a fate worse than death, in this short tale of poetic horror.

Includes a long excerpt from the anthology "Spirits and Thought Forms: Tales from Prosperity Glades".
