Who Do They Say I Am: The Vindication of Minister Louis Farrakhan Demetric Muhammad

For more than 30 years, The Honorable Minister Louis Farrakhan has withstood a steady and blistering attack of malicious propaganda coming from the American media, Jewish groups, and the U.S. government. The prison of public opinion that lies, slander and half-truths have created is finally being undone through the work of the Nation of Islam's Research Group (NOIRG). This volume written by NOIRG member Demetric Muhammad collects and compiles the treasure of testimonies of the broad and diverse group of prominent Americans who have borne witness to the noble character, positive impact and immeasurable value of The Honorable Minister Louis Farrakhan. Such profound acknowledgements help to construct a Farrakhan Leadership Profile that can be studied and adopted by leaders who seek a path that harmonizes spiritual power, courage, integrity, ability and love. For it is these characteristics and more that we see in abundance when analyzing Minister Farrakhan's beneficial presence. It is a must read for all who seek to have an understanding of the controversy surrounding Minister Farrakhan. It is a special value to those who have admired the Minister privately, but feared making their admiration known publicly.
