Larussi's Heartsong: The Appendix to A Queen's Heart David Waine

'Larussi's Heartsong' is the appendix to the fantasy trilogy, 'A Queen's Heart', but it is not necessary to have read the first three books beforehand. It is a complete story on its own.

Larussi Samossin has escaped from the tyranny of the dark lord, Darank, only to lose everyone she has ever loved. At the end of the trilogy, she is truly alone.

The action moves on five years. Now eighteen, Larussi is a postulant with the Sisters of Mercy. Sensible of her fragile condition, Queen Avalind has forbidden her to take her vows before her twentieth birthday. That day is now just two years away and the new head of the order, Mother Salsa, knows that the girl must face the outside world again before she can make the momentous decision that will determine the rest of her life.
