The 21st Century is inarguably the most technologically advanced time period humans have ever faced with ever increasing number of breakthroughs being made every day in every field, most importantly nature & its workings. Scientists have tried their best to understand the processes of the human body, especially the skin and have been successful to some extent but what they fail to realize is that not every problem has a “take-a-pill” solution; some tasks have to be left to nature itself. The modern day generation has been left addicted to the previously stated “take-a-pill” solution to such an extent that they never look into their surroundings for solutions that literally lie in front of them.

First actors, then businessmen and now the common public, all have systematically fallen prey to the artificial art of skin care as decades have progressed. The artificial remedy may provide satisfaction with minimum amount of personal maintenance but in the long term it would affect your skin in such a negative way that sometimes, even artificial methods would fail to recover it. And thus to save you from the turmoil, we bring “Natural Remedies for Skin Care”.

The title itself is pretty much self-explanatory. The book will be your first line of defense guide against bad skin using natural techniques; skin care is a hot topic nowadays and this book will completely satisfy your needs of a flawless, glowing skin using nothing but nature’s very own remedies.
