Shopping. Baking Cookies. Decorating. Parties. Wrapping Gifts. These are all the things we do at Christmas time. We speed our way through the holidays and barely have enough time to enjoy them. Very few people sit and reflect on the meaning of this time of the year. All our busyness is centered around Christmas Day. Yet, there is so much more to this holiday. A miraculous event took place one clear, still night that changed the world. Lives were touched and are still being touched today. There is deep meaning and symbolism in the advent of Christ. This devotional is designed to help you stop and reflect on Christ's birth. It is meant to be a tool to help you focus on what is really important during the holidays. Thirty-one devotionals take you through the entire month of December, as well as lines to journal your own thoughts and meditations. Christmas day isn't the end of the story. His entire life has significance for us today. One Clear, Still Night also includes inspirational readings, as well as recipes and ideas to help make your Christmas meaningful.
