When the Moon Is Low: A Novel Nadia Hashimi

Mahmoud's passion for his wife Fereiba, a schoolteacher, is greater than any love she's ever known. But their happy, middle-class world—a life of education, work, and comfort—implodes when their country is engulfed in war, and the Taliban rises to power.

Mahmoud, a civil engineer, becomes a target of the new fundamentalist regime and is murdered. Forced to flee Kabul with her three children, Fereiba has one hope to survive: she must find a way to cross Europe and reach her sister's family in England. With forged papers and help from kind strangers they meet along the way, Fereiba make a dangerous crossing into Iran under cover of darkness. Exhausted and brokenhearted but undefeated, Fereiba manages to smuggle them as far as Greece. But in a busy market square, their fate takes a frightening turn when her teenage son, Saleem, becomes separated from the rest of the family.

Faced with an impossible choice, Fereiba pushes on with her daughter and baby, while Saleem falls into the shadowy underground network of undocumented Afghans who haunt the streets of Europe's capitals. Across the continent Fereiba and Saleem struggle to reunite, and ultimately find a place where they can begin to reconstruct their lives.

Brenda Rodriguez:

As a pupil exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's soul or real their passion. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to go to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring along with can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this When the Moon Is Low: A Novel can make you truly feel more interested to read.
