Where Friendship Lies Shawnte Henderson, Raquel Y Eldride

Ramona Shaw moves to Chicago to aide her husband, Darius, in realizing his dream of opening a medical center with his best friend, Keith Lewis. In a new place and in a new house, she doesn't have any friends and she grows bored when Darius' workload begins to monopolize a lot of his time. Eager for something to keep busy, she dedicates herself to fixing up their home. Enter Cheyenne Morris, a beautiful and wildly successful interior decorator. Cheyenne's down-to-earth and friendly nature makes it easy for them to become fast friends. Cheyenne is battling with the troubling times in her relationship with her fianc , Chad, while Ramona battles with the loneliness in her marriage. Ramona and Cheyenne eventually come to share a friendship and a secret so deep, it completely changes their priorities. It's a secret that can never be allowed to come to light. If it does, love, marriage and their once predictable lives could be forever changed. Find out what happens when everything done in the dark threatens to come from behind closed doors...and if anything can ever go back to "normal".
