Counting on Starlight (Lone Star Hearts Book 2) Lynette Sowell

Star light, star bright. . . A canceled wedding, an insistent ex-fiancé, a tempting job offer, and California girl Liann Rivers unexpectedly finds her dreams tied up in tiny Starlight, Texas. Except when she arrives, the job isn't what was promised, the move doesn't get rid of the pesky ex-fiancé, and her car won't even run. What's a girl to do?

Jake Tucker is tired of being responsible, tired of being the strong tower for his family, and ready to escape Starlight, once and for all. The chance of a lifetime—coaching football at the college level—is finally within reach. Except there's this new girl in town, and somehow he can't see himself anywhere without her.

When choices threaten Liann's job and reputation, Jake must choose between his career and the woman he loves, even if that means staying in Starlight. Forever.
